

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Anderson

The end of the year is drawing closer and with it comes a calendar full of senior activities. It all starts tomorrow with the Senior Dress-Up. Come on seniors—this is your chance to look your very best.

Tomorrow also is Senior Awards Assembly at 10 a.m. in the school auditorium. Seniors who have received scholarships and special awards will be recognized. The junior class will be invited to this assembly.

During the week of June 5, seniors will be hard at work with semester finals. Friday, June 9, will be the first rehearsal for Baccalaureate. Caps and gowns will be distributed at this time.

SUNDAY, JUNE 11, at 3 p.m. in the school auditorium, Baccalaureate for the senior class will take place. June 12 has been designated as Senior Sun Day. The senior class will have a catered picnic at the Torrance YWCA at 8:30 a.m. The THS yearbook, "Torch" will be distributed to the seniors at this time.

June 13 will be the last time the senior class will meet before commencement exercises. The senior luncheon will be held at the Hacienda Restaurant at 1 p.m. The seniors will be entertained by Mr. Charles Slater and Mr. DiFiore. Sue Pescar, senior class president, will deliver a farewell address to the Golden Class of '68.

June 14, the day seniors have been looking forward to for four years. Graduation exercises will take place at 8 p.m. on the football field. This is the last time the Golden Anniversary class will be assembled together. And then it's off to the All-Nite Grad Party at Disneyland. Buses will return the graduated to school at 5 a.m. the next morning.

AS FOR THE rest of the Tartars—yearbooks will be distributed June 14 and June 16 is the very, very final day of school.

Don't forget the Girls' League installation of fall officers tomorrow in the Home-making Apartment at 3:15 p.m. All girls are invited.

Congratulations to the new class officers who were elected by their classmates to lead them through the fall 1967-68 semester.

THE GREAT senior class of next year will be lead by Mike Belzer. Jim Crew will be vice president; Kathy Nolan, secretary; Judy Engstrom, Girls' Court representative; Sue Simmons, treasurer; and Gary Borland, Boys' Court representative.

Reception Marks Opening Of Medical Arts Center

More than 1,000 guests attended a champagne reception Sunday to celebrate the official opening of the $2 million Torrance Medical Arts Center, located at 3840 W. Lomita Blvd.

The three-story structure is the first building to be completed in a planned 25-acre medical complex. The site is adjacent to the 10-acre parcel where the new Torrance Memorial Hospital will be built.

The reception was sponsored by the directors of the center and Tormed (Torrance Medical Complex).

Architect Neil Stanton Palmer conducted tours of the building, which contains 32 suites for physicians, in addition to laboratory and pharmacy facilities.

Hosts included Mr. and Mrs. John Sainsevain and Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Keehn, developers of the center.

Other hosts were Drs. and Mmes. Raymond I. Wintroub, Lafayette Burns, Robert E. Hollis, William F. Douglas, Roy Halpern, Frank E. Goetz, Maurice Rothart, Ronald T. Piccirillo, Keith Packard, Charles Tam, and Jerry Greenhut.

Among exhibits on display was a master plan of the 25-acre complex.

Stamp Club Plans Quiz

The Torrance Stamp Club will hold a stamp quiz at its next meeting June 12 at 7:30 p.m. Several members of the club will act as judges at the stamp and coin show to be held in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium June 16-18. The club meets in the Scott Park Municipal Bldg., 23410 Catskill Ave.

Program on Teeners Set

The second in a series of parent education programs on "Teenagers" will be presented at the South Bay Psychological Center, 119 Palos Verdes Blvd., Redondo Beach, June 13, 20, and 27 and July 4, 11, and 18, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

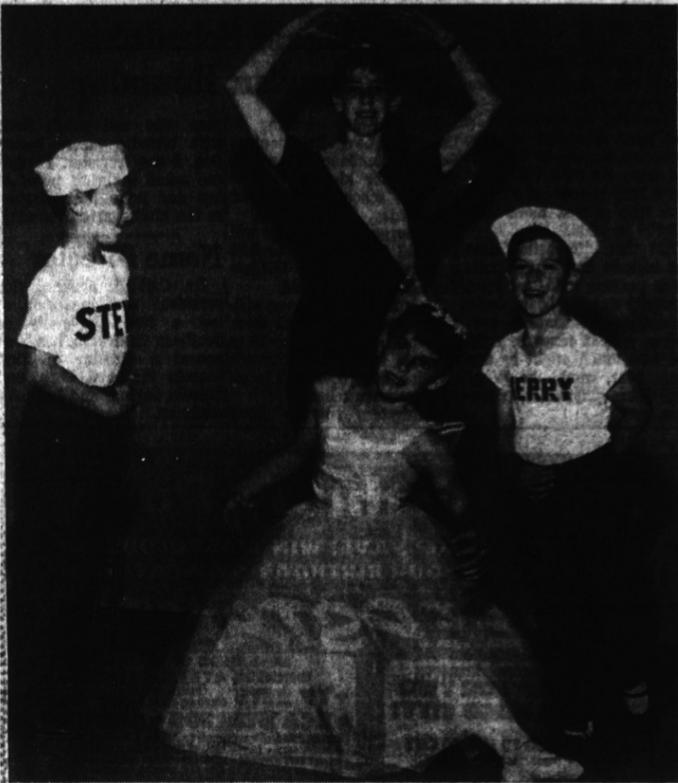

The program is open to all parents who have teenagers. Emphasis will be placed upon discussion of common problems between adolescents and their parents and methods of solving them.

Braille Institute Needs Drivers for Area Youths

A special call for volunteer drivers to drive blind teenagers to a summer basic training course, beginning June 26, has been issued by the Braille Institute. The course is scheduled five days a week for nine weeks, and will teach teenagers orientation and mobility, home management, techniques of daily living, home repairs, sewing, handwriting, and Braille reading and writing. Drivers are needed in all areas in Greater Los Angeles to transport sightless students to summer classes and activities at the Institute at 741 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles. Other volunteers are needed to serve as readers, teaching aides, Thrift Shop sales help and in the youth program. All classes and services are free of charge to the blind. Prospective volunteers may call the Braille Institute for additional information.

Growing Steady

This is no get-rich-quick book. But, with it, you do get richer...quicker.

Because, when you save at Great Western Savings, you earn the highest interest in the nation on insured savings—5.25% current annual rate. And your savings grow steadily each day because interest is compounded every day—giving you a total of 5.39% when maintained a year. Of course, all interest rates are determined quarterly; but, if you project our current rate over the years, you'll see it makes every dollar double in only 13 years and 2 months. All this, while your savings are insured safe and backed by the strength of $800 million in assets. Grow steady with Great Western Savings.

You'll be richer... quicker than you think.

Member: Great Western Financial Corporation, whose consolidated assets exceed $1.6 billion.
